To whom it may concern,
I understand there is some controversy about Bhagwan's status as a religious leader and teacher. I am 14 years old and have been a sannyasin for two years and am spending my summer holidays in Rasneshpuram,

I have been to three different festivals and everytime I visit I am amazed at the amount of progress the city is making and the amount of love and care that is being put into it. Just living in a regular big city and coming to visit and seeing the difference between the two makes it plainly obvious that something extraordinary is going on here. It is only through Bhagwan's presence and inspiration that such a beautiful place could happen. Even though he is silent that doesn't mean he isn't communicating with his disciples every day. Even when he drives by you can tell how much he loves his disciples and how happy he is here, Without him being here it would not and could not be the same beautiful, growing, alive city. I hope Bhagwan is allowed to stay here, his presence is very special.

Sincerely yours,

Jennifer Hill
