To whom this may concern:

I am a musician, trained as a pianist at New England Conservatory, Boston, Massachusetts, with a B.A. in English and Music from Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island. I have been composing music for dance companies in New York City since 1979. Since discovering Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh in 1981 my music has become clearer and more delightful to hear. It is difficult to explain the alterations in one's work with words. Suffice it to say that audiences are remarking on the alterations. The quality has shifted from seriousness to humor, from heaviness to delight. Audiences leave my performances happier and more fulfilled.

Bhagwan has affected my music more than anybody else. It has been my pleasure to be associated with Bhagwan, and to feel the depth of his contribution to my work. This is a Teacher whose abilities place Him very high in the field of arts.

The changes in my music began when I met His sannyasins. Love and joy began to flow through my life and through my art. Later I was affected more by His presence: eyes, face, hands always delighting in humor, no matter how important a situation might seem; books that laughed in the face of all seriousness. My music could not "worry" any more. Rather, the sounds began to include enjoyment and praise for all that God offers.

His abilities as a religious leader are incontestable. Only a great religious leader could give love, joy, happiness and celebration to so many people ... thousands, worldwide, discovering that Heaven has descended on earth, creating together a life dedicated to God and His goodwill on earth. It is a blessing to be living with such a wise, loving, intelligent Master. His silence goes deeper than words. His presence communicates where language cannot speak.

Sincerely,

Ma Puja Apurvo
