To Whom It May Concern

I have been a practising psychologist for the past 25 years. During this time many people influenced my work, for example, H. Murer, J. Haley, C. Rogers, M. Erikson, E. Fromm, F. Perls.

It is with deep gratitude I acknowledge my debt to these practitioners; but always I felt that something was missing.

It was not until I came into contact with the teachings of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh that I found both a philosophy and practical application which fitted the needs of modern man.

In my opinion, Rajneesh is to the Western world what Socrates was to the Greeks.

Yours sincerely,

J.A. Coventry, B.A., D.C.P., M.A.P.S.
