To whom it may concern

I am twenty-nine years old, got a university degree (cand.phil.) in danish litterature and language and working as a gymnasie (~ high school) teacher.

During the work on my final dissertation I was so lucky to come in contact with Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, and I want to state his great influence and his very special abilities in the fields by which I am familiar. In his treatment af litterature he ~~xxx~~ is able to throw new light on many texts and refere to the meditative space out of which all great art arises, emphasising that art is something to be enjoyed.

On the educational area I had found great inspiration in his thoughts and his unique combination of freedom and discipline, enabling me to have a genuine and loving relation to my students.
