

July 14 1983

To whom it may concern,

Bhaqwan Shree Rajneesh is a wonderful man that I ^{am} happy to be connected to. Even though I am not a disciple I have felt his strength through many of his writings and they have helped me and given me strength to better appreciate and enjoy my life. The fact that I have entrusted my son John, now called Anand Yogi, into his loving care is a clear example of how I feel. Anand Yogi is becoming a fulfilled, useful happy human being for the first time in his life. I am very thankful. — In my busy life name of your name.

Sincerely,

Judith L. Chiara

60 Lincoln Avenue

Purchase

N.Y. 10577

Hearings Authority's Symphony Orchestra and part of the executive committee of OCHA (Council on Hemispheric Affairs) - I was born in N.Y.C. and is Central and South America an amazing amount of despair, lack of hope, crime etc.
 If, therefore, lightens my heart to know that in the world there is a loving spirit such as Bhagwan Sure Rayman - whose ^{and had to be city} life is a living example that it is possible to be free, happy, busy and fulfilled - I am writing this letter to you at Rayman's house just to say how grateful I am that there is such a place on earth and that when I wish I can come and