To whom it may concern

I'm a teacher at a German Elementary School and interested in the religion of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. Although I'm no disciple, his books have really given me a precious impuls for my life. In his words I reel great love, religious wisdom and a real understanding of life.

I've heard that there are some problems about his American visa and about accepting him as a religious master.

For myself he's one of the greatest living masters, being able to bring a lot of love, joy and positivity to people. His religion could be worth for all of us.

Yours
