To whom it may concern

As I am going to celebrate my 8th birthday of being a Sannyasin soon, in a review of these years I have to realize that Bhagwan's teachings brought me a very different kind of human sense, brought me more close to understand myself and others, helped me to solve many problems in the past and present. My life has been much richer, more beautiful and natural than before.

A man like Bhagwan is needed urgently these days, where more and more crime is happening in the world as well as pollution and people's separation and loneliness.

During my visit of the commune of Rajneeshpuram I found only healthy environment, loving, beautiful people living their lives in harmony with nature. I also found all places taken care of in a very, very esthetic way. Everything was perfectly clean, healthy and just beautiful.

My very opinion is, that without Bhagwan's presence this would not be the same. Even now he is in silence to the public for about 1½ years his very presence and invisible inspiration makes Rajneeshpuram a place which every country could be proud of.

Yours sincerely
