To Whom it May Concern:

As a psychotherapist and educator, I wish to state that the discourse presentations by Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh are of great value to myself, clients, and students. The discourses are a powerful means of working through confusion and difficulties, and for clarifying the mind in matters of everyday living.

Active teaching is not always necessary, and, in reality, every master ceases speaking publicly from time to time. The presence of this person is itself an inspiration and a benefit to all those interested.

I support his remaining in the U.S. to continue his work by virtue of his presence and often non-verbal forms of communication.

Yours sincerely,

Josef DellaGrotte, Ph.D.
