Dear Sir:

I am an activities worker (recreational therapist) in a nursing home. I have a B.A. in dance and post-graduate training in psychomotor therapy. I became acquainted with Bhagwan through friends, books, a film, a center, workshops. His influence in my work and my life is tremendous. His emphasis on awareness, doing things in a total way, being in the "now," and the value of all parts of our existence help me find clarity and value in my work with sick and older individuals. His humor and beauty of expression add brightness to my life.

Sincerely yours,
Linda Schoenfeld
