To whom it may concern,

I came to Rajneeshpuram for the Second World-celebration and I am staying here as a guest. I am participating in the life of the Commune. I sat at the feet of the Master during the festival and experience the merging of my ego in this silence.

What I feel is mostly gratitude. Gratitude for this silence which helps me to go inside, which keeps me in touch with what is happening inside me.

Since the day I arrive I felt so much peace and tranquility all around me, like if it was hanging in the air of the Commune. It's disciples are very loving and peaceful and that brings up my own peace and softness.

When I go to see him for His drive, I experience deep love, deep trust and joy bubbling. Suddenly the time stops. It is eternity.

Being around Bhagwan is the most powerful experience that one can have. It purifies, transforms, and nourishes you.

Bhagwan being here in America, in Rajweshpuram is a great blessing for the whole humanity.
