To whom it may concern,

I have been a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh since January 8th 1982. My first contact with Him was through listening to a taped discourse given by Bhagwan. This was in 1980. The following years of my life have been filled with inspiration and love for Bhagwan through meditations dancing and listening to many tapes. Also I have read over fifty of Bhagwan's books.

Although I have never met or spoken to Bhagwan, I have no hesitation in saying that He is my spiritual guide, my Master. I have twice visited Rajneeshpuram, for both the 1982 and 1983 World Celebrations where I found that merely to be in His presence, to commune silently and joyfully with Him is a great blessing and source of nourishment.

To hear Him speak in public is not necessary. All His words of great wisdom have been recorded for posterity and Bhagwan still communicates His messages to His disciples through his secretary Sheila. It is very important to me that Bhagwan is alive, and that it is possible to sit in His presence every year. Never have I felt a lack of spiritual leadership in Bhagwan. In fact His silence has made a deep heart to heart communion possible, which no words could convey.

Yours sincerely,
Anand Pravin
