To whom it may concern,

Dear Sir,

I heard about Bhagwan in 1979 and I went to Poona in 1981 after reading his books, listening to tapes and being in contact with samyasis for two years. When I arrived in Poona, he ^{had} already stopped speaking. I still became one of his disciples because I felt love and positivity in his presence very strong. For the first time in my life I felt closeness to God and his existence.

When I was in Oregon, Rajneeshpuram, this year I saw everywhere that no word is needed to believe in his teachings. The positive lifestyle of the samyasis living there and their creative attitudes to the environment show their responses to Bhagwan's guidance.

I hope that Bhagwan's status as a religious teacher and his presence in the USA will be permanent.

Yours sincerely

Dhyam Charyo
