

Amsterdam, August 4, 1983

To whom it may concern,

My name is Ma Prem Para, and I am a disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh since 1979.

I am living in a sanyas-commune, a place where sanyassins (disciples of Bhagwan) live and work together.

During the day I've got a job in the Tourist Branch, and at night, I return in the commune. This place is called a Bhuddhafield because, for me, it is a place where a experience love and prayer and joy, where people related to each other out of the heart.

I'm thankful to return to this place at night because it gives more value to my life.

I've been visiting Rajneeshpuram, the city where Bhagwan is living, this summer and last summer.

I loved it to see him passing by in his car and sitting in the presence of him during Satsang. This is a one-hour meditation where you sit with your eyes closed, in the presence of Bhagwan, and you feel silent so you can allow Bhagwan to touch your heart with his love. For this silent communication Bhagwan does not need words to teach us what love is.