To whom it may concern,

I know Bhagwan since 4 years. I became one of his disciples, a Samyasya in September 1981 in Germany. Now I'm living and working as a translator in an office in Faenza, Italy.

The presence of our master, Bhagwan Sri Rajesh, helped me to find myself and to go forward on the street of meditation. To be one of his disciples means for me to understand more the other people, to feel more love for others and me and to be helpful and open for the problems we have.
