To whom it may concern.

I first came to hear about Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh from a Sanghis doctor who was treating me through therapy taught to him while he was in Bonn with Bhagwan.

This doctors compassion and empathy aroused my curiosity and he lent me some of Bhagwan's books and tapes as part of my therapy, as well as telling me where I could go to experience the actuality of Bhagwan's teachings. I went to Premdeep Meditation Centre and found love and acceptance as well as an environment set up to allow me to be myself without the games of the society I had come to accept as the norm.

I have been a Sanghis now for nearly two years and although I have never heard Bhagwan say a word in person, I have felt his love, both through my fellow Sanghis here in Adelaide and for the 12 wonderful days I spent in Rajneeshpuram surrounded by his silent love.

Through his teachings I have seen how spirituality and love can go hand in hand, and within his silence I have felt the power of love. His silence says more to me than words could ever do.

My whole being is directed at being with Bhagwan in Rajneeshpuram as part of the biggest experience of life, a city built around the silence of love.

Yours sincerely

Ma Prem Ushano
