TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am an advertising agency creative person, well-known in my field.

Over the past 15 years I have won numerous major awards including Gold Medals in the New York Art Directors Club Show and many Clios (the ad industry's equivalent to the Oscar).

My work has been published and written up in various magazines including Fortune Magazine.

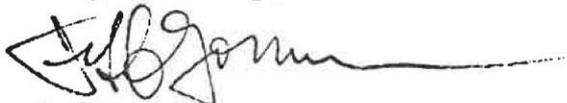

I know of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh through his books and through my closest friends.

As a writer I can only applaud and admire his words of universal truth and wisdom. And the poetic manner in which he expresses himself.

His ability as an artist and theologian is, in my opinion, exceptional.

Therefore, I feel his presence can only enhance the cultural and intellectual atmosphere and community in this country.

Respectfully,
