Sir:

As a buyer/seller of metaphysical books I would like to state that Bhagwan Rajneesh's books have been among our most popular stock for some years. I am well acquainted with the content of these books and they are, beyond doubt, of genuine spiritual value. They will certainly remain an essential part of any well-stocked bookstore.

I am not a follower of Bhagwan Rajneesh, but I have great respect for his work, I believe he deserves to be read with an open mind.

Yours respectfully,
J. A. Folsberg
