To Whom it May Concern,

On March 31st, 1983, I became one of Bhagwan's disciples.
I know about Bhagwan through some of His books.
His approach, which says, be affirmative to everything in life, has given me hope.
Even if there is evil, it must be necessary for us.
We will be able to see real goodness only, when we experience what evil is.
We should not be afraid, even of evil.
Bhagwan's work must be a great experiment for the coming 21st century.
Only people who have genuine intelligence can realize this.
It is necessary for us to make this experiment happen, so people can grow higher. K. Takahashi
I will vacillate no more.
Bhagwan only needs people who are able to here His silence,

Amen
