To Whom it may Concern,

I am a resident of Rajneeshpuram and I am writing in support of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh, and to describe my experience of him as a spiritual teacher.

I am originally from the main line in Philadelphia. I graduated from Harcum College in 1969 and for many years I owned and operated my own antique store in Haverford, Pennsylvania.

I met Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh in Poona India five years ago. I remember learning more in his lectures than in all of my previous years in school. His meditation techniques lead me to discover a sense of peace I had never known.

When I returned to America I moved to Berkeley, California and through what I had learned from Bhagwan, I began teaching stress management through meditation and breathing techniques.

In spite of the fact that I had no formal education in this field, professional people from all walks of life came to me to learn these techniques. I made my living doing this for four years.

I now live in Rameshpuram, Oregon. It is a totally crime-free city. There is no poverty or unemployment here. It is impeccably clean and there is no pollution. The entire city is permeated with a feeling of peace and harmony. Rameshpuram is this way because of Bhagwan's presence here and his silent inspiration.

Using our city as an example, Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh has much to teach the world especially in these troubled and violent times.

Sincerely,

Ma Prem Ajita
