Sir -

My son has been a follower of Bhagwan Rajneesh since he was about fourteen. He is now eighteen and has developed in a most remarkable way. Not only is he culturally read & shrewder than his peers in this country - but has developed sensibly & mastered technical skills & so is a blessing to any community. He doesn't intend to attempt to live in America - but through his example I have absolute faith that the way of Life & the teachings of Bhagwan Rajneesh can only enrich the cultural climate.

I'm an actor with the National Theatre in London - I have toured all over America and twice played in New York. The last time I appeared I was honoured with a Tony Award.

Yours sincerely

Michael Coughlin
