Dear Sir,

RE: BHAGWAN RAJNEESH

I first came in contact with the writing of Rajneesh two years ago. Since then I have read many of his books. I think he has lot to give to the modern man who is lost in the struggle to accumulate material wealth and boosting up his ego.

He has numerous ashrams and centres through out the World where his philosophy and meditation are taught and practised. He is a religious leaders to his followers.

Yours faithfully,

SHARAD N. MEHTA.
