To whom it may concern:

I am teaching on a high school chemistry and biology, am 35 years old, married since 7 years, with one child of 5 years.

4 years ago I met Bhagwan Shre Rajneesh, by reading one of his books. Before this time, I had had a long time of search.

As child of religious catholic parents I was convinced by her fairly, but a feeling of discontent, of failing the point, of missing the source, grew more and more. Now with Bhagwan I am beginning to "dig" for the source. He as my master shows me the way how to "dig" for it in my own inner.

Near to him, I go on a level of silence, peace and love. When I feel near to him, I at the same time feel near to Jesus, to the cosmos and to my inner self.

Yours sincerely

Ma Ana d Friederike
