To whom it may concern,

I am a practising management consultant with qualifications in engineering and management from three U.K. universities and experience as a damage and crisis counsellor.

I have read the teachings of Bhagwan Sri Rajneesh and believe that these are a major and significant contribution to the fields of behavioural science and religion.

Bhagwan Sri Rajneesh is clearly a recognised and outstanding contributor, on a worldwide basis, to both these fields. I believe his work represents an exceptional contribution in these areas.

Yours faithfully
