To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter as a supporter of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. My name is Ron Wallach. I am a consultant in the area of Stress Management for the U.S. Office of Education, the Internal Revenue Service, the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, School Districts, Colleges and Universities (U.C. Berkeley), health care organizations, and businesses. I have degrees from Penn State University and the University of Louisville -- graduated with a Phi Beta Kappa.

The writings, teachings, and philosophies of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh have been a major, positive influence on my teaching and consulting career for five years. I have used his meditation techniques and his teachings as the main basis of my seminars with great success. I have seen hundreds of people's lives blossom with health and happiness as a result of being exposed to Bhagwan's teachings. I consider him to be one of the most brilliant and influential teachers I have ever encountered.

Rajneesh is a spiritual leader, teacher, and philosopher of international caliber. His three hundred thirty six books have been translated into all major languages -- to be enjoyed and of benefit to people all over the world. These writings are worthy of Nobel prize consideration. Rajneesh is a teacher of world-wide stature-- one that is encountered very rarely. He is an international genius.

Very truly yours,

Ron Wallach
