

To Whom it may Concern:

I believe that Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh should be allowed to remain in the United States.

The premise of this man's teachings is love. He has written many beautiful books that expound his philosophies, and has obviously touched many people in the country and around the world who find spiritual enrichment in his works.

The United States is founded upon such ideals as freedom of expression and freedom of religion. The deportation of this man would make him a victim of religious oppression, which is of course in direct contradiction to these freedoms.

It is frightening to me that such a flagrant denial of these rights can possibly occur in this country due to prejudice that is based upon fear, misunderstanding, and misinformation.

Sincerely,
Kathy Gray
