To whom it May Concern,

I took sannyas in December of 1982. I had been interested in Rajneeshism for 18 months before this date. Consequently I have known of Bhagwan Shree Rajneeshism for all the time since he became publicly silent. Video tapes are available of the time before this when he did his discourses. I have seen many of them and have also read many of the books written by him. I find his presence in person and on video, during his silence more moving and profound than when he spoke. His silence conveys more than what words can ever do.

Yours sincerely,

Ma Shunyam Amara
