

To Whom It May Concern

I have become a sannyasin in the last six months, and have been drawn to Bhagwan's love and energy for over a year.

My initial contact with Bhagwan was communicated to me by the emanation I felt coming from his disciples. They conveyed a love to me in a way I had never known before. I realized this very unique experience had to come from a special source and I traced this source to Bhagwan.

I subsequently read many of his books and I derived an inspiration from him and a great love emerged within me for this beloved Enlightened Master from whom I felt I had gained a new life.

It has never occurred to me that I have sustained a loss because Bhagwan is now in silence. After all, he has said all I have needed to learn in words in his books, and I have been able to receive personal messages and guidance from him in answer to letters I have written him personally. But what he communicates to me in love and enlightenment transcends words coming to me across the oceans regardless of his silence.

Bhagwan even though now in silence is indeed my guiding force, my Spiritual Leader and my Beloved Enlightened Master.

Yours sincerely
