To whom it may concern

Everything I have ever experienced in my life is not comparable to what it is for me being in the presence of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh. That was as well when he was holding his discourses in India as it is even more strange to be with him in silence during Satsang or his daily drive-by on the Road.

It is beyond words to express it and the only thing I can say is that it is for me of ultimate importance that this man is here right now and that I have the opportunity to be with him, in his Buddhafield.

To feel his incredible love and silence is a constant reminder to me what is possible in life, and seeing him every day keeps me off forgetting and falling asleep again.

I feel blessed to be here
