To whom It May Concern:

After receiving a Master's Degree in Finance, I have worked for Price Waterhouse & Co., Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, and Atlanta Area Technical and Junior College.

I have long thought the uniqueness of America and the source of its vitality comes from the human resources that we have drawn from all over the world. I see Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh as a major religious leader whose new religion is making a very real contribution to America's consciousness. Bhagwan, through his very presence in America and directly through his disciples being with him at Rajneeshpuram, is doing more to making America and its people sane than all the psychiatrist and mental institutions here.

As far as me personally Bhagwan has brought me peace where there was frustration, love where there was cynicism, and joy where there was disillusionment. He continues to make me whole and complete.

It appears obvious that Bhagwan is a tremendous economic asset to the State of Oregon through his staying at Rajneeshpuram.

And lastly I can not see how we can still tell the world that America is a land of religious freedom and deny Bhagwan and his religion here.

Please give Bhagwan the American visa that he so rightly deserves.
