TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I am 42 years old and have done whatever I could in my life to find the truth: school, family, politics, poetry, farming, city-life, friends, children, simply everything but absolutely nothing religious. I was a convinced atheist who put the word 'God' like chewing-gum into the mouth. I had never bent my head or knees before anybody.

It was not until I met Bhagwan for the first time that I fell down on my knees and not gotten up since. To feel him here in Oregon, to live in his presence and to work in his presence -- what a gift!

For America, he is the greatest adventure since Columbus. He means freedom for the whole world, freedom which America wanted to bring to the world for centuries. With Bhagwan, American can become a country of pilgrimage for all those who are on the search for inner and outer peace. Bhagwan and his disciples are a Noah's Ark in a world that is almost doomed to go under. With Bhagwan in America there will start a new chapter in humanity's history: peace, love and freedom. Give this outstanding exceptional teacher and religious leader the permission to stay in this country and to share his love!
