To whom it may concern

Dear Sir,

Since 4 year I am a sannyasin (disciple of Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh) and I have never experience myself so strong as between sannyasins, which are members of my family.

Spending sometime in Rajneesh Puram, made u even more happy to know that I'm part of these joyful people who are eagerly worshipping the master who is in silence. It's really magic to see how much they've created in such a short time with so little people. Just the present of an insight master can make it happen.

I myself live in a commune in Holland with my son, and it has been really beautiful for us to learn how to live life in a playful way and still be very creative.

Bhagwan's message is love, and all he wants to do is spread it all over the world, so we can all be loving to each other and happy.

Through silence does he spread his message and we all feel it much stronger than through words. He is the man of peace and love.

Let's help him to bring it out to the miserable world.

Yours sincerely

D. Jaffe
